

Organization and Content

- The goal of the course is to bring the student to the point at which he can speak, understand, read and write basic Spanish in most everyday contexts.
- Components of the course
 - Oral review
 - Conversation
 - Verse and pronunciation
 - Grammar review
 - Homework check
 - Vocabulary review
 - Introduction of new material: alternates lessons involving rote memorization with lessons involving grammatical concepts, allowing students time to practice the material between each step in learning.
 - Grammar
 - Vocabulary
 - Verse
 - Grammar
 - Application: reading or report
 - Application and enrichment
 - Songs, interviews, or reports
 - Cultural enrichment activities

Special Projects

- As assigned

Textbooks

- Por todo el mundo, Part A and Part B by Steven A. Guéman; A Beka Book Publications.
- Vocabulary Manual, A Beka Book Publications.